Paris Fashion Trend Forecasting & Analysis

SECTION I: Course Overview

Course Code: FM325CGD

Subject Area(s): Fashion Merchandising

Prerequisites: Recommended – a course in fashion management or marketing

Language of Instruction: English

Total Contact Hours: 45

Recommended Credits: 3

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Given the fast-paced nature of fashion production, trend forecasting has become an important tool for predicting the future needs and desires of consumers. Understanding and engaging in trend forecasting is thus necessary for remaining relevant in fashion.

The course begins with an overview of the field of trend forecasting including methodologies for field research from street observation to fashion fairs & exhibitions. The product focus will span street fashion to high fashion and include both niche and mega-product trends.

We will then shift our focus to filtering the information gathered through field research, retaining the most salient elements of that research and representing them through visual dialogue, stories and trend boards. Special attention will be given to leading a trend meeting including differentiating between audiences and visually representing trends in digital formats. Digital forecasting and predictive modelling will be analysed as part of the future of fashion trend forecasting. Students will be confronted with the realities of various social and cultural backgrounds empowering them to disconnect personal judgement during the product development process.

Coursework will be largely experiential in nature and rely on research, observation, analysis, and application.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course, you will be able to:

- Acquire methodologies for field research in fashion trend forecasting
- Apply outcomes from field research in order to create a forecast proposal for a company
- Articulate persuasive conclusions, in written and oral formats, for the company

Term:	SEMESTER

ATTENDANCE POLICY

This class will meet once weekly for 150 minutes each session. All students are expected to arrive on time and prepared for the day's class session.

CEA enforces a mandatory attendance policy. You are therefore expected to attend all regularly scheduled class sessions, including any field trips, site visits, guest lectures, etc. that are assigned by the instructor. The table below shows the number of class sessions you may miss before receiving a grade penalty.

ALLOWED ABSENCES – SEMESTER
Courses Meeting X day(s) Per Week	Allowed Absence(s)	Automatic Failing Grade at X th absence
Courses meeting 1 day(s) per week	1 Absence	4 th Absence

For every additional absence beyond the allowed number, your final course grade will drop down to the subsequent letter grade (ex: A+ to A). As a student, you should understand that the grade penalties will apply if you are marked absent due to tardiness or leaving class early. In the table below, you will find the grade penalty associated with each excessive absence up to and including automatic course failure.

ATTENDANCE DOCKING PENALTIES
Absence	1 st	2 nd	3 rd	4 th
Penalty	No Penalty	0.5 Grade Docked	1 Grade Docked	Automatic Failure
HIGHEST POSSIBLE GRADE AFTER ATTENDANCE PENALTIES
Grade	A+	A	A-	F

CEA does not distinguish between excused and unexcused absences. As such, no documentation is required for missing class. Similarly, excessive absences, and the grade penalty associated with each, will not be excused even if you are able to provide documentation that shows the absence was beyond your control. You should therefore only miss class when truly needed as illness or other unavoidable factors may force you to miss a class session later on in the term.

GRADING & ASSESSMENT

The instructor will assess your progress towards the above-listed learning objectives by using the forms of assessment below. Each of these assessments is weighted and will count towards your final grade. The following section (Assessment Overview) will provide further details for each.

ASSESSMENT OVERVIEW

This section provides a brief description of each form of assessment listed above. Your course instructor will provide further details and instructions during class time.

The instructor reserves the right to make changes or modifications to this syllabus as needed

Class Participation (10%): Student participation is mandatory for all courses taken at a CEA Study Center. The instructor will use the rubric below when determining your participation grade. All students should understand that attendance and punctuality are expected and will not count positively toward the participation grade.

CLASS PARTICIPATION GRADING RUBRIC
Student Participation Level	Grade
You make major & original contributions that spark discussion, offering critical comments clearly based on readings, research, & theoretical course topics.	A+ (10.0 – 9.70)
You make significant contributions that demonstrate insight as well as knowledge of required readings & independent research.	A/A- (9.69 – 9.00)
You participate voluntarily and make useful contributions that are usually based upon some reflection and familiarity with required readings.	B+/B (8.99 – 8.40)
You make voluntary but infrequent comments that generally reiterate the basic points of the required readings.	B-/C+ (8.39 – 7.70)
You make limited comments only when prompted and do not initiate debate or show a clear awareness of the importance of the readings.	C/C- (7.69 – 7.00)
You very rarely make comments and resist engagement with the subject. You are not prepared for class and/or discussion of course readings.	D (6.99 – 6.00)
You make irrelevant and tangential comments disruptive to class discussion. You are consistently unprepared for class and/or discussion of the course readings.	F (5.99 – 0.00)

Group Project Paper (20%): In groups of 3 to 4 students, you will identify/select a project for applied trend research. You will articulate the company's identity, its needs for trends, and frame the field of your research using the methodologies outlined in class (e.g. trends, lifestyle). Your findings must be verified and articulated in a coherent manner in the form of a 6-8 page group paper (illustrations not counted)

Midterm Group Presentation (10%): As a group you will present in front of the class the state of your work. The objectives, the field and the methodology of your research must be clear. At the conclusion of your presentation you will moderate a Q&A session in order to get constructive feedback, from your classmates and instructor, on the progress of your research and findings.

Source List, Budget & Timeline (10%): Within your group you will catalogue appropriate sources of trends (street observation, fairs, exhibitions), their price and efficiency, and publication date. These venues, events and publications will define the scope of your research. Your findings will include a budget and a timeline.

Trend Boards & Book (20%): As a group you will analyse and condense your research into conclusions of future trends. With these you create physical trend boards for general, inspirational consumer trends. The group project will be graded collectively. In addition, you will individually create a digital trend book of specific product trends for your next collection. The individual project will be evaluated individually.

Final Paper (10%): You will hand in your complete paper (project, source list, timeline, reflection journal) which will incorporate the feedback from the midterm presentation.

Final Presentation (20%): The final presentation is a mock exercise during which you will present your trends as if you were persuading the board of your company. You will be graded on your professionalism, as well as the coherence and completeness of your project.
