COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed for students who have little or no prior knowledge of Italian. The primary aim of the course is to develop the four basic language skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking) through communicative, collaborative, and cultural activities.

The course combines several integrated approaches aimed at developing basic Italian language skills. Classroom time is devoted mainly to speaking and practicing Italian through a combination of group-based and individual activities, focusing on grammatical structures, language functions and vocabulary. Sessions also address a range of contemporary cultural themes using newspaper articles, advertising material and short film clips. In addition, on-site activities, such as visits to markets and coffee-bars will give students a unique chance to rapidly implement their linguistic development and newly acquired intercultural competences.

By the end of the course, you are expected to master basic grammar and lexical structures, in order to conduct a simple conversation and write short and basic texts with some degree of competency. You will be able to speak about yourself and your family, introduce people, interact with the host community, and follow short and simple conversations.

This course is offered as a 3 or 4 credit course. Students can see the difference between the two offerings in the forms of assessment.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Upon completion of this course, you will be able to:

- Utilize basic vocabulary relevant to sport, activities and pastimes, family, technology, shopping, food and grocery, as well as greetings and expressions of courtesy.
- Apply basic grammar including adjectives and verbs in the present tense.
- Recognize differences between Italian culture and society and your own culture.
- Produce oral units in Italian in interpersonal mode.

Name:	TBD
Contact Information:	TBD
Class Schedule:	TBD
Term:	SEMESTER

ATTENDANCE POLICY

This course will meet twice weekly for 120 minutes each time, for a total of 28 class sessions. All students are expected to arrive on time and be prepared for the day's class session.

CEA enforces a mandatory attendance policy. You are therefore expected to attend all regularly scheduled class sessions, including any field trips, site visits, guest lectures, etc. that are assigned by the instructor. The table below shows the number of class sessions you may miss before receiving a grade penalty.

ALLOWED ABSENCES – SEMESTERS
Courses Meeting X day(s) Per Week	Allowed Absence(s)	Automatic Failing Grade at X th Absence
Courses meeting 2 day(s) per week	2 Absences	8 th Absence

For every additional absence beyond the allowed number, your final course grade will drop down to the subsequent letter grade (ex: A+ to A). As a student, you should understand that the grade penalties will apply if you are marked absent due to tardiness or leaving class early. In the table below, you will find the grade penalty associated with each excessive absence up to and including automatic course failure.

ATTENDANCE DOCKING PENALTIES
Absence	1 st	2 nd	3 rd	4 th	5 th	6 th	7 th	8 th
Penalty	No Penalty	No Penalty	0.5 Grade Docked	1 Grade Docked	1.5 Grades Docked	2 Grades Docked	2.5 Grades Docked	Automatic Failure
HIGHEST POSSIBLE GRADE AFTER ATTENDANCE PENALTIES
Grade	A+	A+	A	A-	B+	B	B-	F

CEA does not distinguish between excused and unexcused absences. As such, no documentation is required for missing class. Similarly, excessive absences, and the grade penalty associated with each, will not be excused even if you are able to provide documentation that shows the absence was beyond your control. You should therefore only miss class when truly needed as illness or other unavoidable factors may force you to miss a class session later in the term.

GRADING & ASSESSMENT

The instructor will assess your progress towards the above-listed learning objectives by using the forms of assessment below. Each of these assessments is weighted and will count towards your final grade. The following section (Assessment Overview) will provide further details for each.

ASSESSMENT OVERVIEW

This section provides a brief description of each form of assessment listed above. Your course instructor will provide further details and instructions during class time.

Class Participation (10%): Student participation is mandatory for all courses taken at a CEA Study Center. The instructor will use the rubric below when determining your participation grade. All students should understand that attendance and punctuality are expected and will not count positively toward the participation grade.

CLASS PARTICIPATION GRADING RUBRIC
Student Participation Level	Grade
You make major & original contributions that spark discussion, offering critical comments clearly based on readings, research, & theoretical course topics.	A+ (10.0 – 9.70)
You make significant contributions that demonstrate insight as well as knowledge of required readings & independent research.	A/A- (9.69 – 9.00)
You participate voluntarily and make useful contributions that are usually based upon some reflection and familiarity with required readings.	B+/B (8.99 – 8.40)
You make voluntary but infrequent comments that generally reiterate the basic points of the required readings.	B-/C+ (8.39 – 7.70)
	C/C-

You make limited comments only when prompted and do not initiate debate or show a clear awareness of the importance of the readings.	(7.69 – 7.00)
You very rarely make comments and resist engagement with the subject. You are not prepared for class and/or discussion of course readings.	D (6.99 – 6.00)
You make irrelevant and tangential comments disruptive to class discussion. You are consistently unprepared for class and/or discussion of the course readings.	F (5.99 – 0.00)

Homework Assignments (15%): Assignments and workbook exercises (set out in the Assignment column of the course content) will be corrected at the beginning of each class. You are responsible for all assigned work and you should be aware that absence from the preceding class is not an excuse for non-preparation. At any point, you may be called upon to respond to questions dealing with material previously assigned by the instructor who will ask to see your workbook at regular intervals during the course to monitor your performance and progress. If you wish to have your homework further explained by the instructor, please bring it to his/her attention at the end of the class period.

Independent Presentations (20%): These are two short oral or written pieces, worth 10% each, that you will present to the assembled class and that will form the basis of a class-discussion. In the first presentation, comprising a minimum of 60 words, you will introduce yourself (name, age, nationality, studies) and explain how you spend your free time. In the second presentation, comprising a minimum of 100 words, you will talk about your daily life, sports and habits during the week. Further details and evaluation criteria will be explained in class. Students taking this course for three credits will choose one of these two presentations. Speak with the instructor to determine which you will complete.

Activities (20%): Individually or as part of a team you will participate in 2 on-site activities, worth 10% each. Activities include two of the following: a visit to a local market; asking and following directions to places of interest in the city; describing the main streets and places in Rome. The instructor will provide you with template worksheets. The result of your work will be discussed in class afterwards. Students taking this course for three credits will choose one of these two activities. Speak with your instructor to determine which you will complete.

Mid-term (20%) and Final Exam (20%): The midterm and final exams are designed to establish and communicate to you the progress you are making towards meeting the course learning objectives listed above. They are comprised of questions and exercises that test your abilities in important areas of competency outlined in the learning objectives above. These tests will incorporate idioms and vocabulary items introduced by your instructor during class, or studied through your homework.
