Assessment procedures and criteria 2024-25

All the activities under the program will be informed in UADRIVE and will be uploaded the first week of the semester

I. Attendance and Participation on campus

Modality of evaluation: 50% continuous assessment (CA) and 50% theoretical exam

1. (10%). Attendance and Participation in the activities developed within the classroom.
2. (40%) Teachers will observe and take notes on the activities undertaken by students from the following (and to determine by teachers of the subject):
 - Preparation of work designed for achieving the objectives
 - Participation in working groups and in CID
 - Participation in Debates and forums at the Campus Virtual according the rules

3. (50%) Theoretical exam:

- Essay questions (number will be determined by the Professor of the subject)

At the beginning of the semester the Professor will inform students of the activities that may be evaluated among: CID, Debate, reports and others specified at the Guia Docente

Professor will assess mastery of the basics concepts on evolution of the sources and institutions in History of Spanish Law.

Professor will assess the result of works in teams and individual

Professor may use the CV for the assessment through multi-chose questionnaires. This will be announced in advance.

The teacher of the subject will consider the presentation materials and the oral presentation, and will assess:

- The structure of work
- The quality of sources and other documentation consulted
- The originality and authenticity
- Spelling and good use of legal language, in any of the official languages in which students are taught.
- The use of Information and Technology Resources.

II . Semi-attendance training, if any and accordint to the CAE:

Modality of evaluation: Continuous Ass. 50% and 50 % final exam

1. (40 %) Teachers observe and take notes on:
 - Timely accomplish of the tasks in due form
 - Participation in work in groups.
 - Participation in debates and forums within the CV.
2. (10 %) Tutorial Action (in cases of non-on site teaching and virtual).
3. (50 %) Theoretical exam by objective evidence:
 - Essay questions (5 determined by the Professor of the subject). A 5 question exam will be graded between 0 and 2 points per question; an exam of 2 essay questions will be graded with between 0 and 5 points per question.
 - Teachers will assess taking into account the mastery of basic concepts about the evolution of the History of Spanish Law.
 - On-time delivery of work and practices in accordance with the guidelines set by Professors.
 - Exchange of information in-time to improve the learning process.

Students who fail the CA(5 points for theory and practice, and minimum 2.5 each one) shall be subject to: general provisions of the Regulation on Assessment of Learning (Art. 5). According to Article 4.3 of the RAL there are retrievable activities and non-retrievable activities (items 5.2 and 5.3 of this RAL). In this case, Attendance and Participation in classroom and the Debate, for on-going assessment activities, it will be non-retrievable for the ordinary and extraordinary examinations; this assumption has to be explained by the teacher.

In the case of tests (activities and individual or group work) carried out throughout the semester, with partial and qualifying round character, students must exceed 5 out of 10, without prejudice of the right to submit to a final test according to the criteria established in the Teaching Guide, as provided in art. 6 of the RAL.

In the extraordinary call, once the continuous evaluation is completed, the students will examine the entire subject and take a practical exam.

In addition, students enrolling once the course has already started shall assume the responsibilities and the compliance of the activities in order to keep up-to date.
