Description:

The increasing globalization of Business makes it imperative to achieve a thorough understanding of the complexities and subtleties of international business activities. Many businesses, that in the past were traditionally considered to be “local” in nature, are now impacted to varying degrees by issues such as competition from low cost foreign sources, multi – cultural marketing requirements, and web – based commerce that crosses traditional market boundaries. As a result today’s business leaders must be capable of exploring new opportunity frontiers while dealing with challenges from far away places.

This course introduces the student to the field of international management. We begin by analyzing the international business environment that connects the phenomenon of globalization with the national and cultural differences that characterize the countries in this economy. Next we will analyze, from the point of view of a medium – large global organization, how to first define a strategy to enter foreign markets, select a global company structure, define a global marketing and human resource planning and controlling global business activities. We will delve into some strategic and functional issues that characterize the management of organizations in the global marketplace.

This course is intended to provide the student with a comprehensive understanding of the fundamentals of international business and the key factors that must be considered in the development of a well conceived, global business plan, from the perspective of a medium – large organization that competes in a global market.

Learning Objectives:

- To trace current developments in the global economy
  - To be able to identify the differences between domestic and international business
  - To critically analyze the implications of cultural differences for international business
  - To explain the importance of the global environment for the medium – large organization
  - To demonstrate the various modes of entry to international markets
  - To examine the role of the global manager
  - To be able to put together a Foreign Market Entry plan and a global business plan
  - To apply the terminology of International Business
- Throughout the course, students will practice cognitive, interactive, and teamwork skills, including analysis, synthesis, evaluation, reflection, critical thinking, problem solving, critiquing and communicating to meet these objectives.

Instructional Format:

Class meetings will be held once a week for 3 hours at a time. Classes will normally be held in the school but on occasion we might be able to visit local organizations.

Form of Assessment:

Reading, class participation, and written work are all required of students.

CLASS PARTICIPATION– Participation in class discussions is expected and required. Students are expected to have read the assigned material thoroughly before class in order to facilitate class discussion. Class participation is evaluated based on the quality (not the quantity) of contribution to class discussion. Class participation is not the same as class attendance, although regular on time attendance is expected.

2 MIDTERM EXAMS – The midterm exams will be short answer and short essays format exams. The exams will be closed book exams. The midterm exams will be given during the class period, as shown in the course outline.

FINAL GLOBAL PROJECT – Students will be required to complete a group project for the course. The thrust of the project will be to prepare and present a fully developed business case and global business plan for a prospective international business opportunity, from the point of a medium – large organization competing in the global market. A 10-page paper and a 20 minutes presentation are required from each team. This is intended to be a team project with active participation and contribution by all team members.

Class participation	10%
First midterm exam	25%
Second midterm exam	25%
Final global project	40%

Class Participation: When determining your class participation grades, traditional criteria such as material preparation, completed reading before class, and collaborative group work are all evaluated. But it is the active, meaningful and informed verbal and written contribution that you make that is most important to your overall participation grade. Indeed, willingness to share views in classroom discussions and the insightfulness of your comments and questions about assigned readings will all be taken into account when evaluating your participation. Whereas attendance and punctuality are expected and will not count positively towards the grade, laxity in these areas will have a negative effect. The instructor will use the following specific criteria when calculating your class participation grade:

Criteria for Assessing Class Participation	Grade
You make major and original contributions that spark discussion, offering both critical and analytical comments clearly based on readings and research and displaying a working knowledge of theoretical issues.	A+ 9.70-10.00
You make significant contributions that demonstrate insight as well as knowledge of required readings and independent research.	A-/A 9.00-9.69
You make useful contributions and participate voluntarily, which are usually based upon some reflection and familiarity with required readings.	B/B+ 8.40-8.99
You make voluntarily but infrequent comments that generally reiterate the basic points of the required readings.	C+/B- 7.70-8.39
You make limited comments only when prompted and do not initiate debate or show a clear awareness of the importance of the readings.	C 7.40-7.69
You very rarely make comments and resist engagement with the subject, attending class having manifestly done little if any preparation.	D+/C- 6.70-7.39
You are unable to make useful comments and contributions, being occasionally absent from, generally passive in, and unprepared for class.	D-/D 6.00-6.69
You make irrelevant and tangential comments disruptive to class discussion, a result of frequent absence and complete un-preparedness.	F Below 6.00

CEA Attendance Policy:

Every student is expected to attend all scheduled class sessions on time and be thoroughly prepared for the day's class activities. In compliance with NEASC and UNH accreditation requirements, CEA instructors compile regular attendance records for every course and take these records into account when evaluating student participation and performance.

- In each three-credit 15-week course, a maximum of the equivalent of two weeks of accumulated absences due to sickness, personal emergency, inevitable transport delay and other related impediments will be tolerated.
- Your final course grade will drop one full letter grade (e.g. A- to B-) for each additional class missed beyond this two week period, regardless of the reason for your absence. However, you will automatically fail a course if your absences exceed the equivalent of three weeks of class.

Furthermore, to comply with immigration and financial regulations, you must maintain full-time student status and attend at least 12 hours of class every week. Consequently, the Dean and Program Director will dismiss from all CEA courses, programs, activities and housing any student who fails to maintain full-time status.
